

THE PORT KELLS ART CLUB
IN PERSON
CRITIQUE SESSION
WITH AMY DYCK

Come join the Port Kells Art Club Critique Session instructed by Amy Dyck. The sessions are for artists of all levels.

Amy likes to involve everyone in the discussions to gather feedback and get a fresh perspective. The critiques add valuable insight to those artists with any stumbling blocks they may have in their creative process and positive feedback on their works. Participants are asked to bring at least two paintings. Depending on time and the number of participants, you may only get one of your paintings critiqued. Not to worry. You can bring the painting to the next session. Sessions will be the last Friday of the months of September and October and begin again in March to June 2026.
