

ART MENTORING FEEDBACK

SESSION WITH AMY DYCK

May 29, 2026

Hello Art Minded People,

The Art Mentoring Feedback Sessions through the Port Kells Art Club is the end of May. For those interested in joining the Art Mentoring Feedback Session, but are unsure if the session is for you, you are welcome to come and observe (as a paid observer). As a registered participant, we ask that you bring one to two paintings that you are having issues with. These paintings do not need to be finished pieces. It is best that they are unfinished.

The PKAC is excited to have Amy Dyck instruct our sessions. Amy likes to involve everyone in the discussions to gather feedback and get a fresh perspective. Using an iPad, Amy draws suggested changes for your artwork over a digital photograph of your painting so you can see how the changes might impact your art. The information adds valuable insight to those artists with any stumbling blocks they may have in their creative process and positive feedback on their works.

The sessions take place at the Eric Bysouth Rotary Field House at, 21355 57A Avenue, Langley BC. (New place for sessions in review). There will be no sessions in July, August, December, January and February. To register, or for more information, contact Pamela Orth at, artofpam@gmail.com. To know more about Amy, go to, <https://www.amydyck.com>.
